POETICAL.

GOING UP AND COMING DOWN.

This is a simple song, 'tis true,
And songs like these are never nice;
And yet we'll try and scatter through
A pinch or two of good advice.
Then listen, pompous friends, and learn
Never to boast of much renown;
For fortune's wheel is on the turn,
And some go up, and some come down.

We know a vast amount of stocks
A vast amount of pride insures;
But fate has picked so many locks,
We wouldn't like to warrant ours.
Remember, then, and never spur
The one whose hand is hard and brown;
For he is likely to go up,
And you are likely to come down.

Another thing you will agree,
(The truth may be as well confessed,) That "Codfish Aristocracy"

Is but a scaly thing at best.

And though the fishes large and strong
May seek the little ones to drown,
Yet fishes all both great and small,
Are going up and coming down.

Our lives are full of chance and change,
And chance, you know, is never sure;

Aud 'twere a doctrine new and strange
That places high are most secure.

And though the fickle god may smile,
And yield the sceptre and the crown,

'Tis only for a little while;

Then B goes up and A comes down.

This world goes for you and me, my friend,

Had something more than pounds and pence;

Then let me humbly recommend

A little use of common sense.

Thus lay all pride of place aside,

And have a care on whom you frown,

For fear you'll see him going up,

When you are only coming down.

AS A SCRAP—LOVE.

BY MRS. A. MARIA COLLINS.

A little bird sang in a leafy bower
Dripping with morning dew;
It spangled the buds of the crimson flower
And pearl'd his bright wings too.

His tremulous strain to his lady blast

Was melody sweet and low;

She sat, a queen in her thistle down nest

That the wind rocks to and fro.

He brought her a worm from the falling rose;

A pea from the opening pod;

How happy they felt—ah! nobody knows

But the bright little sparrow, and God.

The leaves all fell from the crimson flower,

The vines were covered with snow,

The pleasure, the joys, and the wearisome glare.

That pleasure moves to and fro!

A. K. MARSHALL, M. D.

This ground and lofty political tumbler has been favoring the citizens of our country with a series of his inimitable performances. His first appointment was made for Tuesday last, in the hope that out of the crowd which was expected at the circus this political juggler could draw a respectable audience. Vain hope! Doctor A. K. Marshall in competition with the most ordinary clown was nowhere. However his trainers succeeded in roping in a few good-natured individuals, who were willing to suffer for the sake of appearances. The medical gentleman, who now considers the Union his especial patient, proceeded in a very professional way to paint over the disease which threatens our confederacy; and then, in the most complacent manner possible, proceeded to prescribe a remedy.

The learned physician stated that there were two sectional candidates before the people for the high office of President. One of these, (Buchanan,) was a southern candidate, and the other, (Fremont,) was the northern candidate. He was silly enough to state that Mr. Buchanan was as much the nominee of a sectional party as Mr. Fremont. After he had thus astonished and alarmed his listeners, he graciously pointed out a remedy, even Mr. Fillmore. Mr. Marshall was again silly enough to state that Mr. Fillmore was not the candidate of any party; but was running as the candidate of the people. Now, all this sounds very plausible, and tickled the Pope-fearing amazingly; but it lacks a very important feature, viz: Truth.

The promises of this distinguished Union-tinker were as false as his deductions were foolish. Let us see: Mr. Fremont was nominated by delegates sent from sixteen States. In fifteen States of the Union Mr. Fremont has no ticket nor party. Mr. Buchanan was nominated by delegates from thirty-one States, comprising the whole Union. In each of these States he has an electoral ticket, and an active, working, living party. How then can Doctor Marshall reconcile his statement with the truth? Does he believe that the people are downright fools that they can be fed on such stuff? Let us see again: Mr. Fillmore, so far from not being the candidate of any political party, is the sworn candidate of the most proscriptive, the meanest party that ever disgraced the United States. He was nominated in secret by a sworn band of political jugglers, who are bound together by a hope of getting all the offices in the Union. And yet Dr. Marshall had the effrontery to say that Mr. Fillmore was not the candidate of any party. It was by such stretches of the imagination that the Doctor endeavored to comfort the forlorn Samites of Harrison. To say the least he is a very bad judge of symptoms. He had better confine his practice to individuals where the earth would hide his blunders. He reminds us of the older Doctor who was "h-ll on fits," but rather more than ignorant concerning all other ailments. It was his practice to throw his patient into fits and then treat the fits. We do not purpose to follow the Doctor through his argument, because we have already given a specimen and because we deem both him and his speeches of mighty little importance in a political canvass.

The Marshalls are tolerably well known in Kentucky. If, in after years, history should be silent respecting the deeds of this illustrious family, the poll-books will furnish ample evidence of the attempts of the branch to which Dr. A. K. Marshall belongs. They seemed to be impressed with the idea that the Marshalls belong the spoils. If they do not get all the offices, it is not due of theirs, and not to be attributed to their modesty, but to a lack of Marshalls or votes. Every known political party has had the Marshalls. If there are any new parties yet to be born, the Marshalls are one of the afflictions which await them. A political party can no more hope to escape the measles. Happy would it be for parties if the Marshalls like the measles were never inflicted but once. But there is no escaping them. They ride a party as pertinaciously as the little rascals rode Simeon the sailor. They can change their political complexion as readily as a chameleon can change its hue, and they are like a man in a treadmill—eternally clambering for the highest place. No sooner was know-nothingism strong enough in Kentucky to promise success than it was afflicted with the Marshalls. Humphrey told the Pope-fearers of his district that he would either run for

KNOW-NOTHING TREACHERY.

The know-nothings of Pennsylvania have gone over body and soul to the Fremont State ticket. Every Kentucky k. n. orator and editor knows this fact, yet instead of protesting against it, they glory in it, and express great hopes that the democratic party will be beaten there in the election which takes place to-day. We hear know-nothings saying every day that after the Pennsylvania election Buchanan will withdraw. We suppose they are fools enough to believe this. Is it possible that a party or an individual can be so far demented as to believe the South would abandon Mr. Buchanan even if the fusion ticket overpowers the democracy in the State election? What! the South desert a party which is and ever has been true to southern rights and to the Union, and take up a party which basely united with the black republicans to defeat the only national party in the North? Do these bigoted fanatics suppose they will be permitted to take advantage of their own wrong? The idea is absurd in the highest degree, and none but a know-nothing will entertain it for a moment.

These black-hearted traitors of Kentucky, who are now rejoicing in the prospect of a triumph of niggerism in Pennsylvania will find themselves woefully mistaken. The South will be true to her own friends. If Mr. Buchanan is overpowered at the North by the united forces of know-nothingism and abolitionism, rest assured that the South will stand by him to the last. Southern democrats will never desert a truly national and great man to vote for a know-nothing. They might as well vote for Fremont at once; for what is the difference in voting for an abolitionist and voting for their secret allies? We have more respect for the open enemies of the South, whose interest is in a different locality, than we have for their sneaking, simpering, secret, sworn sympathizers who reside in our midst. We heartily despise these hypocrites!

Kentucky know-nothings who were so elated over the nigger triumphs in Illinois, Iowa, and Vermont, and who are hoping for a similar victory in Pennsylvania. We mob itinerant abolitionists; but we tolerate a secret and sworn band of bigots, who openly rejoice at every abolition triumph in the North; who advise their sworn brothers to unite with the vilest of abolitionists to put down the true friends of the South. A single abolitionist, who comes here to steal a dozen or two of negroes creates a great commotion in the bar and feather market, but an organized band of abolitionists who would steal the entire institution of slavery are cheered on by Kentuckians and preferred to sound national democrats like Willard and Buchanan. Pope Swigert prefers Fremont to Buchanan; so does A. D. Madiara; so do a score of know-nothings whom we have heard express themselves. Humphrey Marshall would not give the toss of a copper for choice. The Louisville Journal advocates Morton's election in Indiana, and all the little Pope-fearing screechers and turnip-headed Pope-fearing editors of Kentucky echo the abolition sentiments of their vile leaders.

GRAND RALLY.

It will be seen by the publication of the committee, in another column, that the democracy of the 8th district are to have a grand rally at Lexington on the 23d. It will be the largest political meeting ever held in Kentucky. Distinguished speakers from this and other States, will address the people. We hope that old Harrison will send up a rousing delegation. Let every one who can, attend this gathering of the democracy, and witness the enthusiasm which animates the true friends of the Union. Let the voice of the united democracy of the 8th district raise such a shout for Buchanan and Breckinridge as shall strike terror to the hearts of the traitors faction in Kentucky which is laboring osenously for Fillmore, but in reality for Fremont.

"And he played on a harp of a thousand strings secrets of jas men made perfect!"

The Louisville Journal know-nothings of our county, religiously believe the "ax and carpet bag" lie, and are properly indignant. Why should they not? Men who don't know the meaning of such words as "incipient" may be excused for believing anything. Never was there a party more appropriately named. They are genuine know-nothings, and are up to the grope question.

Now that the late elections in the northern States have convinced the people of the South that Mr. Buchanan has a party in the North, and that Mr. Fillmore has not, we hope we shall hear no more silly twaddle about the withdrawal of Mr. Buchanan. Nothing but know-nothing insolence and audacity would have brass enough to talk of such an absurdity. The very idea is ridiculous in the extreme, and does great credit to those funny fellows who are supposed to be "all right on the goose."

The DIFFERENCE.—Hon. A. P. Willard, democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana is a national man and has always been opposed to abolition. Judge Morton the black republican candidate for the same office, in the same State, is an open and avowed abolitionist. He once said he had "rather see the Ohio river run with blood than to have another slave State added to the Union."

As between the two candidates, the Louisville Journal urges his political brothers in Indiana to support Morton, and hopes they will "support him with their whole hearts."

HORRIBLY, IF TRUE.—We understand that Dr. A. K. Marshall stated that if he ever joined the democratic party, the party would have to come to him—he, the great medical expounder of Sam—would not budge an inch towards the party. "Cruel, cruel serpent!"

A SPECIMEN IMPORTATION.—In our paper of today, we publish a letter from Capt. Rynders exposing that spirit rapping know-nothing, Chauncey Burr. This Burr was imported to Kentucky for the express purpose of making Kentuckians believe that "New York is safe for Fillmore."

He's a pretty bird, when stripped of his feathers.

The Filibourneys of this delightful little town all look as though they had lost a grandmother. Worse still. They have lost all confidence in Fremont's election. Poor devils. We don't pity them at all. On the contrary we rather enjoy their misery. What a blessed thing it is—in times of trouble—to be "all right on the goose!"

In Town.—Col. W. W. Gruelle, of the Charles town, Illinois, "Democracy," is in town on a flying visit to his old friends and "familiar haunts."

Col. Gruelle is a reformed know-nothing, and is doing good service in the cause of national democracy.

DEMOCRATIC THUNDER!

CONNECTICUT ALL RIGHT!

The democrats have met the united hosts of Sam & Sambo in Connecticut, and whipped them out. The freedom-screachers and Pope-fearers of the "land of steady habits"—are beaten—thumped—mauled—walloped, and knocked all to flinders. The State is certain for Buck and Breck in November.

DELAWARE IN THE FIELD!

The gallant little State has swept know-nothingism from her borders. Sam is kicked entirely out of the State, every county giving a democratic majority. Three cheers for the "Blue Hen's Chicken!" Has anybody seen Sam? Say!

IN MICHIGAN

The democrats have made large gains. Gen. Cass says the State is safe for Buck and Breck, and we believe he knows.

A CORRUPTION FUND IN LOUISVILLE.

When denouncing the Journal becomes particularly ferocious denouncing any man or party for some contemplated fraud or crime, one can swear that it or its friends are but preparing the way to perpetrate the same game.

Yesterday charged James Guthrie, and Peter G. Washington with assessing a tax upon the clerk in the Treasury Department for electioneering purposes, and then indignantly declares that "no man but a villain" would be guilty of such conduct. We do not pretend to defend the man, but we do know that the things he has done by every party in power. What was done by Fillmore's administration four years ago, for we saw made every office-holder in this city and State, in the hands of a gentleman who had been sent out by the National Whig Central Committee to collect them; and if Fillmore ever should be in the Presidential Chair again, we doubt not the very same thing would again be done.

But suppose we try the abolitionist editor of the Journal by his own rule. What will the people of Kentucky think after reading the Journal's fierce denunciation of Guthrie and Washington for such "horrible corruptions" when they learn that the self-same thing has been done in Louisville, and that the full knowledge and approval of the editor of the Journal? What will you think of the unscrupulous editor and this "wretched corrupt party?" when they know that every office-holder under the Louisville City Government, who could be compelled by the secret know-nothing Councils has been assessed and compelled to pay largely towards a corruption fund for election purposes? Our information is from an undoubted source—from a member of the know-nothing order who goes his death for Fillmore, and who thinks this all right. We understand that the sum raised thus far is nearly $10,000. Will the Journal dare to deny this or any part of it? If it does we will give the names of the committee who made this assessment, the names of those assessed, and the amounts paid, from Mayor Barber's $200 down. We take them in our possession and will touch for their entire correctness.—Louisville Courier.

There it is; out at last. When the Louisville Journal set up a hypocritical howl about money being sent to Louisville by a member of the Cabinet, for political purposes, we knew that some rascality was contemplated by the know-nothings. It is easy enough to track this vile party in its sycoundrelism. It never fails to set up a woful cry of "stop thief," just before it commits some of its favorite crimes. The lie of the Journal about "carpet bags and axes," is put out to hide the intentions of the know-nothing party in Kentucky. They intend to import voters. Mark that. One of the "arrangements" is, to poll a fraudulent vote, Another is to keep democratic from voting where the know-nothings are strong enough. But all their diabolical machinations will do them no good. They are beaten and the knowing ones of the faction know it. Burnt brandy won't save them; neither can they procure voters; we can beat a few thousand extra goons fellows in Kentucky. Let them raise their "corruption fund." It will make money more plenty. Go it ye cripples, and be sure that you are "all right on the guse."

The Cincinnati Enquirer makes the following pertinent remarks upon the article in the Louisville Journal, urging the know-nothings in Indiana to vote the abolition ticket. Kentuckians, this is the language of a democratic paper in a free State. It deserves your most serious consideration:

Are Kentuckians ready to be placed in this attitude—to follow this lead—to sanction this coalition with abolitionists? If so, let them proclaim with characteristic manliness and frankness their will and determination. It is due to both North and South that the position of Kentucky should be clearly defined.

The national men, who, in the North, are contending so vigorously for the equality of the States and the rights of the South, will have but little encouragement indeed in their perilous struggle, if they are to be abandoned by the nearest southern State, and their enemies and the enemies of the North and of the Union are to be strengthened and encouraged by the South.

The fusion of the Fillmore party with the abolitionists in Pennsylvania; this recommendation of the Louisville Journal to the Indiana Fillmoreans to vote for the candidates of the abolitionists; the openly avowed preferences of Bots, another Fillmore man in the slave State of Virginia, of Fremont over Buchanan, are not very favorable indications of the stanchness, consistency, or national fidelity of that party in the South. They are the worst symptoms we have yet witnessed of the diseased condition of public opinion, in the present serious crisis of our country.

FOOTPRINTS OF SAM.—The late city election in Baltimore was attended with riot and bloodshed, as is always the case where know-nothingism is concerned.

In Baltimore, the democrats have gained 1,220 votes, and this in the face of brass-knucks. Maryland is all right.

EXIT OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—The Fayetteville (Tenn.) Observer says an Abolitionist named McKeever was discovered prowling around in that locality last week. He had been tampering with the negroes thereabouts, trying to induce them to run off; but they exposed him, and forthwith he was treated to a free ride on a rail, a bath in the creek, and a respectable blacking; after which he was started off North.

At Lexington, Ky., William L. Jones has received a verdict of $3000 damages against William P. Hart for whipping him while bathing in a pond.

A LETTER FROM CAPT. RYNDERS.

We copy the following letter from the Frankfort Yeoman of yesterday:

CHAUNCY C. BURR.—The following letter which purports to give an inkling history and character of a New Yorker, now attempting to cut a figure as a Fillmore stumper in this State, was written to a gentleman in Frankfort in response to a communication of his lately addressed to the author of the letter. It was handed to us for publication, and is given in full from the original. "We leave it to speak for itself. Capt. Rynders is President of the New York Empire Club, and a gentleman of considerable reputation. His opportunities of knowing the past history of this ex-Rev. lecturer on Spiritual Rappings and Fillmore Stumper, are certainly the best, and he is reputed as being "as good as his word" in all such cases. Here is the letter:

NEW YORK, Oct. 4, 1856.

Dear Sir: I received your letter yesterday and send it according to request. Chauncey C. Burr was once a sort of humbug preacher, of what persuasion I have forgotten. In 1848 he was a rabid freesoiler. He then wrote pamphlets. At one time he attempted to humbug and swindle the public by pretending that he had discovered the secrets of the spiritual rappers. He then became a bitter hard shell democrat, and managed to become the editor or the assistant editor of the National Democrat. He never was a leading member of the hard shell party, but was always one of the leading liars and scoundrels of every party with which he became associated; and if a good opportunity offers he will swindle the know-nothing to the extent of his ability, which is not small. As I presume that I am indebted to your know-nothing orators and newspapers for these personal attentions, from the fact that I reported the Cincinnati platform upon the slavery issue. If they know anything of the political history of parties they must also know that, instead of being at the Buffalo Free Soil Convention in 1848, I was a member of the Baltimore Democratic Convention of 1848, which nominated Gen. Cass, and reported the resolutions there against the Wilmot Proviso doctrines which were then the basis of slavery agitation at the North.

At an earlier period, in 1844, at the Baltimore Convention of that date, I opposed the nomination of Mr. Van Buren, because he was opposed to the annexation of Texas. If your know-nothing orators are not satisfied with these evidences of a just appreciation of the rights of the South, it only shows that they must be in secret, if not in open co-operation with the black republicans of the North, to put down the men and the only party of the citizens of all the States in the Union, and of the citizens of the Territories. I only care to have my political friends at the South correctly informed touching these slanders. I shall not trouble myself about your "peculiar institution" which from the specimen you gave me, seems to be quite as peculiar as our "peculiar institution" Abolitionism.

ISAIAH RYNDERS.

[From the Memphis Appeal.]

A HIGH TRIBUTE TO NORTHERN DEMOCRACY.

Gov. Reeder, of Kansas notoriety, has published a letter giving his reason why he has abandoned the democratic party and joins the black republicans, in support of Fremont. Among the reasons he gives the following:

"Having originated a movement myself, to aid our people—free-State men in Kansas—by sending them men and money, and having prosecuted it with the strictest avoidance of party character and a studied neutrality as to the political canvas, and having earnestly asked the co-operation of men of all parties, I have failed to enlist in it, to my knowledge, a single democrat. In the Conventions of Cleveland and Buffalo called without distinction of party, in furtherance of this enterprise, there was no democrat present but myself. This cannot have been from any want of generosity or of means, but only in deference to the prevailing tone and sentiment of the party which I enlisted upon the other side of the question.

A correspondent of the Tribune enclosing a draft for $100 for the Kansas fund says, with regard to the contributions of this sum.

"In no single instance has a Fremont man, if able, failed to respond. I do not slight the Buchanan man, but have not yet been successful in obtaining a single dime from one of them."

In fact, it is the universality of the black republicans at the North, that they meet with no sympathy from the democrats there, in their traitorous designs against the rights and institutions of the South. Is it not a pregnant fact? A fact speaking volumes to the South? Not only is the Democratic party, as a party, national in its character but here is testimony, that the humblest member of the party at the North, stand true to the Constitution, and true to the South. Abolitionists can find sympathy with every other party at the North; they can procure aid from whigs and know-nothings, at the North, to strike down the South in the Territory, but in the emphatic language above: they have not been successful in obtaining a single dime from a Buchanan man, for any such purpose.

The position of the democratic party before the American people to day, is indeed a proud and patriotic one; and if this Union is to be preserved, if the rights under this Constitution are to be protected and secured to every portion of this country, it can only be done by the democratic party—plaiting themselves as they have ever done, on the Constitution and its guarantees, and beating back the tide of fanaticism.

In the past political history of our country, what other party has stood up for the rights of the South? In the present position of political parties, what other party at the North is fighting for our Constitutional rights?

In every village and country, city and town of the North, the democratic party is doing its duty to the country against its enemies, abolitionism, and know-nothingism.

And yet here at the South, the democratic party is denounced, and its candidate is denounced as being untrustworthy and unsafe for the South to rely upon. Truly, party spirit does blind southern men to just appreciation of their interests and position.

A COSTLY ADVERTISEMENT.—The Legislative Assembly of Victoria, Australia, having ordered a list of all the registered voters to be published in the local newspapers, the Melbourne Argus came out on four different days with forty-eight pages of double demy. The charge for the advertisement amounted to £10,200, or in the vicinity of $50,000.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.

L. B. Dickerson, Esq., of Scott county, will address his fellow-citizens of Harrison at Colemansville, Tuesday, 14th, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

Mr. Dickerson and Robt. W. Woolley, Esq., will also speak at Turkey Foot, in Scott county, on Wednesday, October 15th.

Overton P. Hogan, Esq., will speak in Cynthiana on Thursday, 16th, at 10 o'clock.

Thos. H. Holt, will speak also at Garnett's.

HON. LINN BOYD.

The veteran democrat, will speak in Cynthiana, on Saturday, October 25th, 1856, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

The attention of the reading public is particularly called to the advertisement of our neighbor, S. Apfel, in another column. Mr. A. has brought out within the last few days the largest and most complete stock of Fall and Winter Clothing, Hats and Caps, Shoes and Boots ever brought to this market, and all of the best and choicest quality of goods, which he is bent and determined on selling as low if not lower than goods can be offered for in Cincinnati, as his aim is to bring that market right at our doors. Quick sales and small profits is his only motto. Each and every one would consult their own interest by calling at his house before purchasing elsewhere if they wish to save money. Now is the time to make purchases.

SECURE THE SHADOW SEE THE SUBSTANCE FADES!—Our readers living in this vicinity, now have a fine opportunity of securing good likenesses of themselves and friends. Dan Brigham, is now in Cynthiana, prepared to take the Ambrotypes of all who wish to preserve their good looks from wrinkles. The Ambrotype is by far the best style picture taken. It is durable (being taken on glass) and life-like, and also very cheap. We have examined specimens of Mr. Brigham's work, and have no hesitation in recommending him as a first-rate artist. Give him a call.

VERY LIKE A WHALE!—Dan Brigham has a likeness of our ugly neighbor, which looks enough like Morey to scare a baby into fits. In fact we thought it was Morey, and did not discover our mistake, until it declined to take a drink.

Our neighbors, G. A. & G. S. Boyd have just received a fresh stock of groceries. Every thing in the way of articles for family use can be obtained from them on reasonable terms. Their assortment of articles is complete and of the very best quality.

DUL.—The New Orleans Delta of the 4th says.

The affair of honor anticipated for some days, and which has been the subject of considerable interest and curiosity, (as the identity of the parties was only hinted at,) came off on Thursday morning at Oskya, the terminus of the Jackson Railroad. The weapons used were double-barrelled guns loaded with buck shot. The opponents were placed on the ground, (the distance we are not advised of,) and at the signal fired. Result—all safe and sound. They then were, very wisely, induced to remain so, or in fashionable parlance, the difficulty was amicably settled. As the affair ended so satisfactorily, we refrain from giving any names:

POLITICS IN INDIANA.—We have seen the secret figures of the black republican wire-pullers. They claim Morton's election by only two thousand two hundred, which is equivalent in our view, to giving up the State to Willard and the Democratic State ticket. They admit that we will elect five members of Congress.

Eight thousand is the very lowest figure at which we can estimate our majority in October. If we can give ten thousand in October, Buchanan is sure of fifteen thousand clear majority in November, and the new speculator will not be heard of any more.—Indianapolis Platfrom, Sep. 24.

TOM THUMB AND BARNUM.—A private letter from Paris says that M. Vatteneare has received a from Barnum, in which the letter asks V.'s advice about the project of his bringing Tom Thumb to Europe again on a speculation, whether his autobiography has not injured any such speculation, &c. Vatteneare replies that, on the contrary, he had now more reputation than ever; so much so that he would, perhaps, make more money to allow Tom Thumb to exhibit him.

WHAT IS LAW?—Law is like a fire; and those who meddle with it may chance to burn their fingers.

Law is like an eel-trap—very easy to get in, but very difficult to get out of.

Law is like a lancet—dangerous in the hands of the ignorant; doubtful even in the hands of an adept.

Law is like a sieve—you may see through it, but you will be considerably reduced before you can get through it.

Law is like prussic acid—a dangerous remedy, and the smallest dose is generally sufficient.

THE RIOTS AT BALTIMORE—KNOW-NOTHING OUTRAGES.

A SMART MILKMAID.—The worshipful Sir Digby Somerville did keep a bountiful housefull ever of brave company, at his seat in Suffolk. At one time among his guests did happen a young gentleman from the Court, whose apparel was more garnished with lacing and gold than his brain with modesty or wit. One time going into the fields with his host they did espy a comely milk maiden with her pale.

"Prythee, Phyllis," quoth the courier, leering the while at the girl, "will I give the a kiss, will thou give me a draught of thy water?"

"In the meadow," quoth she, "thou wilt find one ready to give thee milk, and glad of thy kiss, for she is of thy kin."

The court gallant looked in the meadow, and espied a she-as.

"So sharp, fair rustie," quoth he angrily, "thou lookest as if thou couldst barely say boo to a goose."

"Yes, that I can, and to a gander also."

Whereat she cried out lustily, "Boo."

The young man hastened away, and the worshipful Sir Digby did laugh heartily, and entertain his guests with the tale.

Book of Merrie Jests, 1609.

GALLATIN (TENNESSEE) RACES.—The two-year-old state—$200 entrance, one mile out, three entries—Berry Williams' "Kate Hayes," a Gloucester colt, and third "Boston"—was won by the former Roundtree's colt paying forfeit. Time 1:49. "Kate Hayes" was purchased by Mr. Roundtree just before the race.

DIED.

On the 7th ult., William Gray, of Harrison county, in his 79th year.

[Communicated.]

Died, at his residence in this county, on the 6th inst., Larkin Garnett, Sr., in the 75th year of his age. He was born Caroline county, in the State of Virginia, on the 4th day of February, 1782, and removed to this country in 1807, where he continued to reside until his death.

To a strong will, a large stock of good sense, and moral integrity, he united superior business and social qualities.

He was truly the head of his family, who not only regarded him with affection as a parent, but revered him for his clear perception of right, and his strong line of justice. He was a consistent and influential member of the Baptist Church, and under the old constitution was for many years a Justice of the Peace, and when the new Constitution went into effect, refused to be elected to that office. He represented the county in the Legislature with great acceptance and the faithfulness with which during a long life he discharged his public and private duties endeared him to the community in which he lived, and in his death it has sustained a loss which cannot easily be repaired.

The crowd from this passed down and through French street, and at the corner of front streets a brick was thrown through the window of a dwelling, when a musket was fired at them from that direction. They then retreated to Hillen street bridge and made a stand, and in a few moments another large crowd had assembled on Pleasant street bridge, one square above. Some few shots were fired by both parties from these points without effect, when both crowds moved around to Holiday street, between Hillen and Pleasant streets, where a general fight took place, which lasted some fifteen or twenty minutes, during which bricks and stones were violently thrown, and a great number of shots fired by both crowds.

Capt. Herring and a number of his officers soon reached the ground, and by a determined course succeeded in separating the combatants, and arresting two of them. Officer Charles Davis was considerably injured at this point by being struck with a brick, whilst endeavoring to make an arrest. He saw a number of persons leave the battle-ground who had been injured by shots and bricks, but was unable to obtain their names. It did not however appear that any of them were seriously hurt.

Officers Brown, Hewitt, Morgan and Davis arrested John Miskell and John Brickett for participating in this riot. On the way to the station house Brickett was severely beaten by a number of persons while in charge of the officers, his head being cut by bricks in some three or four places. His wounds were dressed at the station house by Dr. Norris. Justice Mearis fined Miskell $2 and costs for throwing bricks, and committed him in default of $1,000 bail to answer the charge of rioting. Brickett was released upon security to keep the peace near Oddville.

Oct 14th.

STRAYED.

FROM the residence of Mr. Harvey Giles, near Oddville, two valuable hogs, one a black-spotted sow, and the other a black-spotted gilt. The left ear of the sow was crooked, and an under bit in the right. The gilt under the right ear. The finder will be rewarded by returning the hogs to their owner, at his residence near Oddville.

I do not claim to sell goods at cost, but I do claim that I will sell as low as any one else.

A RECORD OF
Adventure, Exploration, and Discovery, during the last fifty years. 1 vol. royal 8vo, 950 pp.

Nearly bound in dark leather, embellished with five fine portraits on steel, by Butte, and illustrated by over forty wood engravings by Orr, and thirteen authentic maps by Schonberg.

Sold to Subscribers only. Price $4.00.

This work contains the records of over fifty separate naratives of travel of those who may be called the representative travelers of the last half century, in the remote and less known regions of the world. Their works are comprised in about 90 vols., and are published in several different languages, and probably could not be purchased for $150; indeed many of them are out of print, and not to be had.

The following are some of the narratives, and will give an idea of the contents of the work.

Life and Travels of Alexander von Humboldt.

Mongo Park's Travels in Western Africa.

Levi and Clark's Journey to the Pacific Ocean.

Travels of Planché, Fish and Lard, Oil, pure Lead and Ground Paints; Tin Cans, Paint, and White Brushes, Glue, Sandpaper, Copal and Japan Varnish, Turpentine, etc.

Callendar's Journey to the Libyan Oasis, Ethiopia and

Also, Moffat's Life in Southern Africa, Sturt's Exploration in Australia; Back's Arctic Land Expedition;

Webster's Travel in Oman (Arabia); Explorations of the White Nile; Maj. Harrison's Mission to Show; Wood's Journey to the Oxus; Parkyn's Life in Abyssinia; Fremont's Explorations of the Rocky Mountains and California;

Hornaday's Travels in Tartary, Tibet, and China; Fortune's Journey to the Teas Districts of China; Recent Explorations of America; Lewis and Clark's Exploration of the Columbia River; Gibbons' Travels in Asia; Gibbons'
Journey to the Amazon River; Journey of Lieutenant Gibbons in the Sahara; Richardson and Earth's Experimentation to Central Africa; Burton's Pilgrimage to Mecca; Exploration of Loo-Choo; From Commodore Perry's Japanese Expedition—Report of Bayard Taylor.

The following are some of the narratives, and will give an idea of the contents of the work.

Dr. Vaughan—Dear Sir.—In the summer of 1852 I had a black boy afflicted with Scrofula and Versicolor, on his head, neck, and all of his joints were covered with running ulcers. I had lost two of the same family, similarly affected, and had given up all hope for him, when I commenced the use of "Blackwell's Sarsaparilla and Versicolor" about six bottles of which entirely cured him.

Respectfully, ALLEN MINOR.

NEW YORK HAND RAKING REAPER $150.

Several thousand of these Reapers have been built and used with universal success. Width of cut 6 1/2 to 7 feet.
